DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copy and Extracts, have been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Ramſay and Lieutenant-Colonel H. Clinton, by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Copy of a Diſpatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Ramſay to Lord Grenville, dated Head-Quarters, Shaffhauſen, September 30, 1799.

MY LORD,

IT is with extreme Regret I inform your Lordſhip, that an Attack has been made on the Allied Army, the Reſult of which has been favorable to the Enemy.

The combined Operations of the Allies, of which your Lordſhip is already informed, were intended to have taken place on the 26th and 27th; and Six Battalions of the Army, commanded by General Korſakof, were detached to Uznach on the 25th, for the Purpoſe of increaſing the Force deſtined to act in that Quarter.

The Enemy, who was, no doubt, appriſed of this Circumſtance, attacked the Ruſſian Army on the 25th, at a very early Hour in the Morning: a briſk Attack of Muſquetry was heard on our Left in the Neighbourhood of Walliſhofen, accompanied by a Cannonade on our Right, which appeared to proceed from the Neighbourhood of Baden.

The Attack on our Left was intended merely for the Purpoſe of drawing the Attention from the true Point; and the Enemy paſſed the Limmat in great Force in the Neighbourhood of Weinengen, between Zurich and Baden.

By this Manœuvre they broke the Line in that Quarter, cut off from the Army the Eight Battalions under the Command of Generals Markof and Duraſof, who were poſted between Weinengen and the Rhine; and, after leaving a Corps for the Purpoſe of obſerving and attacking them, they aſcended the Limmat towards Zurich.

A Regiment of Dragoons being, in conſequence of the Detachments that had been ſent away, and the Troops that had been drawn to the Left, the only Force remaining in the Part where the Paſſage was effected, the Enemy advanced and arrived in the Neighbourhood of Zurich before they experienced any Reſiſtance of Conſequence; the Plain in Front of Zurich between the Limmat and the Heights, which, running parallel to the Limmat, form a Continuation of the Albis to the North-Weſt, being occupied at the ſame Time by a Line of their Infantry and Cavalry, who, with a very numerous Train of Artillery, attacked with great Vigour the Troops in Front of Zurich, and prevented their detaching to their Right the Point on which the great Efforts of the Enemy were directed.

At a late Hour in the Forenoon ſome Reinforcements arrived on this Side of the Limmat, but the Enemy were already Maſters of ſome of the principal Heights which command the Town; and notwithſtanding the Bravery diſplayed by the Ruſſians in their repeated Attacks, the Superiority in Point of Force and Poſition on the Side of the French rendered it impoſſible for them to regain that which had been loſt. At Sunſet the French had made themſelves Maſters of Part of the Zurich-Berg and nearly ſurrounded the Town.

The Attack on the Poſition of General Hotzé had terminated rather in Favour of the Auſtrians, but General Hotzé was unfortunately killed at the Commencement of the Action, and General Petrarſch, who ſucceeded to the Command of the Army, having reſolved, in conſequence of the Loſs he had ſuſtained, to avoid the Attack which he expected the next Morning, retreated in the Night from Uznach.

The Situation of the Ruſſian Army was thus rendered ſtill more critical, and it became abſolutely neceſſary to abandon Zurich, and the Poſition in that Neighbourhood, without Delay. On the 26th in the Morning the Retreat took place, and the Whole arrived in the Courſe of that Night in the Neighbourhood of Eglifau and Shaffhauſen without experiencing any Loſs of Conſequence during their March.

We have to regret the Loſs of between Two and Three Thouſand Men killed, wounded, and miſſing; and Ten Pieces of Cannon have, with a Part of the Baggage, fallen into the Hands of the Enemy. A nearly equal Number of French Cannon were taken by the Ruſſians, but the Want of Horſes, which prevented them from taking away their own, was the Cauſe of their being alſo obliged to leave theſe.

The Army under the Command of General Korſakof is at preſent poſted with its Right to Eglifau, and its Left to the Lake of Conſtance.

By a Letter juſt arrived from Field-Marſhal Suwarrow, it appears that he has taken the Mont St. Gothard, and is at preſent advancing towards Altdorf and Schweitz.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN RAMSAY.

Extract of a Diſpatch from Lieutenant-Colonel Ramſay to Lord Grenville, dated Head Quarters, Shaffhauſen, September 30th, 1799.

YOUR Lordſhip has already no Doubt received Accounts, through France, of the Calamities which have befallen us in this Country, in which our Loſſes have moſt probably been exaggerated to a great Degree. Aware of this I would if poſſible have ſent your Lordſhip an earlier Account; but it was impoſſible for me to give a correct Statement of the real State of Things, which was much worſe to Appearance when the Army firſt arrived here than at preſent.

General Petrarſch has retreated from the different Poſitions between Uznach and Rheinech, where it is ſuppoſed he has already paſſed the Rhine, and this Part of Switzerland may be conſidered as completely evacuated for the preſent; it is the more unfortunate, as the Succeſſes of Field-Marſhal Suwarrow would have rendered the Succeſs of the projected Operation almoſt certain, if we had fortunately been able to retain our Poſition. At preſent the Field-Marſhal's Situation will be rendered very critical, if timely Notice has not been received by him of the Retreat of the Armies.

I am ſorry to inform your Lordſhip, that from the Reports I have received, there is Reaſon to apprehend that the Swiſs Regiments of Bachman and Rovorea have ſuffered conſiderably. I have as yet had no exact Accounts, and I will defer therefore making any Report to your Lordſhip till another Opportunity occurs, as I am in Hopes their Loſs has been chiefly occaſioned by Diſperſion, in which Caſe it will probably every Day diminiſh.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Clinton to Lord Grenville, dated Bellenzona, September 16, 1799.

HAVING been directed by Lord Mulgrave to attend Field-Marſhal Suwarrow on his March to Switzerland, and to tranſmit to your Lordſhip Accounts of the Proceedings of this Army, I have the Honor to inform you, that it reached Tavence, about Ten Miles ſhort of this Place, Yeſterday Evening; having performed in Five Days a Diſtance of One Hundred and Sixteen Engliſh Miles. It was the Field-Marſhal's Intention to have recovered, by the Length of his Marches, the Three Days loſt by the falſe Alarm for the Safety of Tortona; but the Aſſemblage of Mules which was ordered to be made at this Place not being completed, and the Impoſſibility of Carriages proceeding any further in the Mountains, obliges him to halt for One Day.

Extract of a Letter from Munich, dated September 25, 1799.

TWO Thouſand Four Hundred Men, as a Part of the Elector's Contingent, are to march on the 1ſt of next Month from the Neighbourhood of Donauwerth to join the Army of the Archduke Charles.

The Plan for forming into Military Corps the Inhabitants of the Palatinate, is to have its Effect throughout the Circle of Bavaria. It is framed for Twenty Thouſand Men, and is to be commanded in Bavaria by Major-General Duroy, an Officer enjoying a high Military Character.

Head Quarters, Savigliano, September 18th, 1799.

ON the 16th the Auſtrian Army arrived at Bra. On the ſame Day the French advanced from the Side of Coni and Pignerol, to Foſſano and Savigliano. In the latter Place they ſucceeded in taking by Surprise an Auſtrian Detachment conſiſting of Four Hundred Men, with Two Pieces of Cannon. It was reported that the French intended the Day following to form a Junction of all the Corps in the different Vallies, for the Purpoſe of advancing into the Plain with the greater Security, in order to Pillage and Plunder the Country. To prevent this Movement, the Main Army marched from Bra in Two Columns on the 15th; One under the Command of General Kray attacked Foſſano. The Enemy, who were in Force there, defended themſelves with great Bravery for near Two Hours; but the ſuperior Courage of the Auſtrian Troops obliged them to abandon the Poſt with the Loſs of about Two Hundred and Fifty Priſoners. The Auſtrian General Sechendorf, an Officer of great Reputation, was very ſeverely wounded. The Column of General Melas took Poſſeſſion of Savigliano without great Reſiſtance. Two Pieces of Cannon and Two Hundred Priſoners were taken. The whole Army will encamp near this Town to-Day.

I am, &c. BENTINCK.

Downing-Street, October 17, 1799.

Erratum in the Gazette Extraordinary of Monday laſt.

In the Diſpatches from His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, Page 1044. Col. 2. Line 18, for Captains Goddard and Jurcoing, read Captains Goddard and Turquand.

THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſs His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply, of the County of Perth, ſtrongly impreſſed with a Senſe of Gratitude to the Great Ruler of the Univerſe, for the ſignal, glorious, and repeated Succeſſes which have attended your Majeſty's Arms, and thoſe of your Allies, by Sea and Land, in various Parts of the World, beg Leave moſt humbly and reſpectfully to approach the Throne, and to offer to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and warm Congratulations on ſuch important Events.

By the judicious and energetic Employment of the National Force, guided by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels and auſpicious Government, by the liberal Aid of Parliament, by the patriotic Zeal, Spirit, and Loyalty, of your People, by the diſtinguiſhed Skill and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, and with the great and powerful Co-operation of your Majeſty's Allies, Victories the moſt ſplendid and momentous, have been obtained.

From theſe great Atchievements it has reſulted, that ſome Nations after having been reſcued from the oppreſſive Dominion and Treachery of France, and from the galling Neceſſity of yielding a reluctant and forced Compliancewith her wildly-ambitious and deſtructive Schemes, have been reſtored to their rightful Sovereigns and legitimate Governments; other Nations, not only of Europe, but of diſtant Quarters of the Globe, have been awakened to a Senſe, and have been preſerved from the Influence of the deluſive and baneful Principles of France, and have been protected and ſecured againſt the Calamities of French Invaſion and Conqueſt; and a confident and well-founded Hope and Expectation have ariſen over Europe, and throughout the World, that, by a ſteady Perſeverance in the Proſecution of theſe mighty Objects, your Majeſty and your Allies will at laſt prevail over that revolutionary Power and Spirit in France, which threatened with Ruin and Subverſion, all Nations, alike by the Force of Arms, and by the Diſſemination of Principles incompatible with Peace, Happineſs, and Security, and deſtructive of civil and religious Duty.

To the final Accompliſhment of theſe Objects we look forward with anxious Expectation, but patient and manly Firmneſs, knowing that by their Attainment only a fit Termination can be put to the preſent arduous Struggle, (though in a juſt and neceſſary War,) and an honorable, ſecure, and permanent Peace can be obtained.

That your Majeſty may long reign over a loyal and grateful People, is our ardent Wiſh.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Name and by our Appointment.

Drummond Hay Kinnoull, Preſes.
